Duties & Responsibilities:	Position starting August 2024 . (Closing date for applications 7th April 2024) ISA is looking for a suitably qualified Maths Teacher up to Higher Level IB Mathematics Analysis teacher to join its teaching team. All teachers take an advisory class in the mornings. We prioritise relationships and care, in an inclusive setting. Flexibility in teaching assignments will be expected, but the main teaching will be High School Mathematics. The suitable candidate must be confident to teach Higher Level IB Mathematics. Inquiry-based instruction will be differentiated to meet student needs across the learning continuum. The teacher will also be required to develop, review and revise planning in the School's curriculum mapping tool (currently Atlas Rubicon), incorporating the school's learning principles in lessons and assessment. The teacher will also participate in professional development and the after-school activities programme. They will establish and maintain positive relationships with other members of the school staff, showing strong collaborative skills, and communicate effectively with parents. They will attend relevant meetings and support the building of a strong sense of community at the school. Participation in parent conferences, curriculum review activities, professional development days and trips is expected of all faculty.
Further Details:	A Disclosure Scotland PVG Membership application will be undertaken on behalf of the successful applicant; cost to be met by the employer. The applicant must have, or be eligible for, registration with GTC Scotland. The employer will meet the cost of the employee's work visa, but not any associated costs, and not the cost of dependent visas.
Application:	Candidates should send a cover letter to Mandy Bray, mbray@isa.aberdeen.sch.uk as well as completing our online application form [Link] . Please note the form needs to be completed in one sitting so you may wish to draft responses before entering information.
